

Tuition Discount Network

What is the Tuition Discount Network?

ISTS partners with more than 75 different accredited colleges and universities to offer reduced tuition rates and other benefits to participants of scholarship and tuition programs that we manage. These schools offer a wide variety of programs, from micro-credentials to graduate degrees.

ISTS does not monetize our TDN in any way. There is no fee for schools to participate in the TDN and no fees for students to access the discounts.

Who is eligible for the discount?

Eligibility for tuition discounts varies from institution to institution but may include:

- Scholarship Applicants
- Tuition Assistance/Reimbursement Recipients
- Applicant's Family Members
- Active Military and Military Spouses

What is the discount?

Discounts and benefits vary from institution to institution but may include:

- a waiver of the application fee
- tuition reduction of 10% to 40%
- direct bill options
- college and career counseling
- full tuition grants

What types of programs are included in the TDN?

Our TDN partner schools offer programs in many fields of study including:

- Arts and Humanities
- Business
- Health and Medicine
- Public and Social Services
- Science, Technology, Engineering and Math
- Social Sciences

Level of degrees offered:

- Certificates
- Associates
- Bachelors
- Masters
- Doctorate

These programs are offered in online, on-campus and hybrid learning environments.

How does a student claim the discount?

Students can visit applyISTS.com/Tuition-Discount-Network for an up-to-date list of educational partners and links to school-specific landing pages. They can then contact the college or university for more information and to request the discount. (Students must be accepted into the program via the school's normal admissions process.)
