NASPAA Accreditation Announcement

Corporate Partner Newsletter Announcement

Headline: The Pace University MPA Receives Accreditation

Body:

It's official: the Master of Public Administration program at Pace University is fully accredited by the Network of Schools of Public Policy, Affairs, and Administration (NASPAA).

The NASPAA is the global standard for all public service education programs, and this recognition is a welcome confirmation of Pace's commitment to high-quality, mission-driven education.

For our students, this designation affirms that an MPA degree from Pace is high quality and high value. For employers, this seal of approval signals that our graduates are capable leaders who are fully prepared to meet the challenges of public, nonprofit, and healthcare governance.

The MPA is available in a 100% online format designed for working professionals. Choose from three tracks in Government Management, Healthcare Administration, and Nonprofit Management. Find out more, including our next start dates, on our MPA program overview page.
